

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Fred Burke and H. R. Campbell, arrested for trying to flirt with Anna Moore, 636 W. Garfield blvd., discharged. No prosecution.

Mrs. E. Winterling, 1906 Jackson blvd., and Mrs. Clara Ordway, 2321 W. Adams st., cut by glass in Indiana av. car crash.

Crossed electric wire fire caused panic among passengers on Taylor st. car. Firemen put out blaze.

Women's Trade Union League to hold outing at Evanston at home of Mary McDowell of U. of C. settlement.

Mrs. Margaret Mette, 3934 Sheridan Road, missing.

Peter Clantea, Austrian count, got three months in Bridewell and $100 fine for attempting to extort money from Mrs. Mary Russo, 567 E. 45th st.

Walter Weisgerder, 6, 658 W. 31st st., missing. Lost in Lincoln Park.

Delavan's comet visible in sky early in morning.

W. J. Loughlin, 270 N. Clark st., found pressing pants in home of Mrs. Jas. Hildreth, Oak Park, arrested. Booked for burglary.

Chicago Bar Ass'n puts lid on newspaper advertising, both paid and otherwise.

Matthew Ryan, 1109 W. Harrison st., killed by fall from wagon. Head broken.

Mrs. Sophie Reinsmann, 4142 Berkeley av., held Mrs. Verna Dickson, 4303 Oakenwald av., until police came. Charges fraud.

Three negroes held in death of Frank Bunnell, Fort Wayne, Ind. Found dead behind 2801 S. LaSalle st.

Body of Ed Sodzeweiz, 12, 2351 Atgeld st., found. Drowned with brother while playing pirates in river.

Alexander Wilsdon drowned in Lake Cora, Mich.

Dominik Szinkavicz, laborer in Pullman shops, killed. Crowbar slipped and crushed skull.

Thos. Greczynyk, 1251 W. 32d st., drowned in canal at California av.

Anti-Saloon League ended their convention Wednesday. Planning election work.

Walter Sezeh, 1453 N. Ashland av., suicide. Despondent.

Frank Wayman, fireman, hit by plate glass blown out at fire at 218 S. Canal st. Seriously hurt.

Chief Gleason demanded enforcement of the law limiting height of saloon booths. In effect Aug. 16.

Clothing found on canal by the Summerdale police identified by Mrs. Chas. Wagner, 2131 Melrose st., as that of her missing husband.

Many applicants appeared at test for policewomen Wednesday.

Coroner investigating death of A. J. Roberts, Pen Argyle, Pa., found dying on road near South Chicago. May be murder.

Paul Osterman, Rockford, Ill., slept on Van Buren st. pier. Rolled off. Drowned.

Will of Jas. Pierce upheld by court. Gives $5,000 to housekeeper and $45,000 to distant relatives.

John Quirk, 7724 Lagoon av., represented self as detective, collected bribes from short-weighting peddlers. Fined $100.

Dr. L. J. Witkowski, 1724 W. 48th st., exonerated in death of Michael Pulut. Mike dislocated jaw, yawning. Died under ether.

Martha Rattenberg, 14, 7441 Evans av., died from effects of ether. Under operation for removal of tonsils.

Marshall Kerwin, 4, 6638 S. Halsted st., hurt by auto driven by Gertrude Schultz, 1125 Prospect av.

Wife of F. J. Halm, 147 W. Oak st., cut him on chest and arms with razor when he returned home after all night stay. Reconciled.

Michael Meyrons, Maywood, hurt when train hit ice wagon he was loading.

John Prosser, 4 months old, 936 S. Fifth av., found dead. Father accuses mother. Both locked up.